157C ----

Dear Arthur

I was very glad to be in touch with you again, though I have to respond about 157C (most economically if not graciously) by copy of the envelope. Between the National Cancer Panel and the Defense Science Board I'm afraid my libido for the shuttle to Washington is more than exhausted at this point.

But I certainly want to catch up with you and UVA. I saw Jim statly before he was named as deputy for the mid-east talks, and he mentioned your name.

You were out when I called just now: hence this note. Perhaps we can share an hour at lunch or whatever when you get back.

Sincerely,

Enc: DL to D Bell
